Re: MUR 5954
Preliminary Response and Request for Extension of Time

Dear Ms. DeJarnett-Miller:

I represent the respondents in MUR 5954. On behalf of all seven respondents (three committees and their treasurers) and Ms. Lee Ann Farrell, an individual, I request an additional twenty days to respond to the complaint. While there is no merit to the complaint, the number of respondents has complicated gathering the facts necessary to make a complete response to the complaint. The additional time to respond will enable me to prepare a comprehensive reply.

The letters from the Commission were received by respondents on December 3 and December 4, 2007. I am submitting this letter today based on our discussion yesterday regarding when the preliminary response was due where there are multiple respondents with multiple dates received.

According to my calculation, the extended due date for the response will be Tuesday, January 8, 2008.

In the meantime, if you have any questions, please contact me at the above address and telephone number. I have enclosed copies of the Designation of Counsel form for the following persons:
